ELWOOD, Ind., Feb. 19.—Elwood made another bid for last place to-night, losing to Indianapolis in a fast game. Dave Tarrant, who was turned loose by Elwood last year, played a great game against his old team-mates, his work at cover point being almost perfect. Bannon won continual applause for his fine work. Scores of really phenomenal stops bounded from the silver-haired veteran's pads. The Grays played listlessly during the first period, while the visitors retained possession of the ball most of the time through superior floor work.

White's work had a yellow streak, he being unable to ward off Tarrant's cover point hooks. O'Hara did good work at half back for the visitors, blocking well at critical times. The game was delayed several times by broken skates and minor accidents. The Grays called and tried hard to win out in the final period but failed. Line-up and summary:

MUNCIE NOW OCCUPIES THE FIRST POSITION

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
ANDERSON, Ind., Feb. 19.—Muncie shut Anderson out at home to-night. Knowlton, the referee, had no control of the players. He called six fouls on Anderson and five on Muncie, many of which were unfair. Holderness played a fine blocking game for Muncie and Muncie worked hard for Anderson. Cusick's play was lucky, but well-nigh faultless. The line-up and summary:

BRITT-CORBETT BOUT WILL BE SET AHEAD

California Objected to Fighting During Holy Week—Corbett Agrees.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—Jimmy Britt will ask that the fight with Young Corbett be set ahead six days, and his request probably will be granted. The contest was set for the last day of the month, but when the fighters agreed upon this time Britt refused that it fell in holy week. Jimmy is not a strict church member, but his folks do not want him to fight at this time. When Corbett was asked to-day what he thought about changing he said:

"It makes no difference to me. Britt can set the fight ahead ten days if he wants to. I will fight him any time next month."

The Hayes Valley Club will likely announce the change of date very shortly to suit Britt.

Manager Corbett of the Yosemite Club has matched his opponent, and the preliminaries to the Corbett-Sullivan fight, and they are good ones. Caesar Attell and Corbett's prize, San Francisco, will provide the first battle and Charley Seliger and Frank Rabel will furnish the other.

TOMMY RYAN TRAINING ON HIS MICHIGAN FARM

He Will Not Leave There Until Early Next Week, as He Wants to Be in Condition.

BEAUSCHOLTE IN SHAPE

Tommy Ryan, middleweight champion, will be in excellent shape to go ten fast rounds with Jack Beauschotte, of Chicago, when they meet at the Auditorium in this city next Wednesday evening. It was Ryan's first intention of coming to Indianapolis several days in advance of the contest, but he has written to the sporting editor of the Journal that he will remain in training at his farm near St. Joe, Mich., until the first of next week, as he desires to be in the best of shape for the fight. Ryan will second Hugo Kelly in the latter's contest with "Twin" Sullivan in Chicago next Tuesday night and will then arrive on the early morning train, leaving here about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. He will stay at the Grand Hotel. Beauschotte has been training in Chicago and will come to Indianapolis on Monday. He will do some light road work in order to keep in shape.

Freddie Cole, who is to meet Jack Daly, of Paterson, N. J., in the six-round semi-final, has been doing some hard training in this city, and is in better shape than when he recently met and defeated Kid Henderson. Daly writes from Peoria, Ill., where he is working with Austin Rice, that he is in excellent condition and expects to win the decision.

The importance of the main bout has attracted interest throughout the State, and many orders for seats from out-of-town men have been received. The advance sale of seats will open at 5:30 this morning at Dallas Tyler's, 12 West Market street. Arrangements have been made to give the out-of-town men who have sent in orders a section of some of the best seats. It is believed that all that is necessary to seats will be sold by the first of next week.

Just to make things interesting the Indianapolis League bowlers rolled thirty-eight 200 or better scores last night. Five players averaged over 200 and two team scores of over 1,000 were rolled.

The Ko-We-Ba was the only club lucky enough to win straight, and it defeated the All Star combination in the six games. The Imperials won five out of six from the Crescents, the latter club winning one game by a three-ph margin. Perry Wallace, of the Crescent, contributed largely to this victory by making the 7-10 split. The Turners won five out of six from the North Sides and the Marions won four fought games from the Washingtons on the latter's home alley.

Cooper, of the Imperials, was high in the individual race with a score of 250, although he was topped by Jess Pritchett in the averages for three games. Pritchett was a close second to Cooper in the individual race. The speedy little member of the Ko-We-Ba rolled a score of 246 in his first game, and this was just five pins shy of the high score. Pritchett rolled scores of 245, 205 and 202, giving him an average of 217 2-3 for the series. Cooper, with scores of 250, 173 and 224, was second with 215 2-3, and Bob Bryson, of the Marions, was third with a 206 2-3 average. Harry Lee, of the Washingtons, was third in the individual list with a score of 244. Fred Taylor, of the Imperials, and Carter, of the Marions, also had averages of over 200. The scores follow:
